Visitor Welcome Point and craft displays delighting visitors

The Gallery continues to be a huge success and is getting a reputation as a great place to purchase unique handmade gifts.

Some of the many fabulous comments:

"After visiting here yearly, we are amazed how this room has changed." – Ms Rowe

"How lovely to see the transformation – wonderful – love the desk!". – Jon & Tim

Work on display: Stunning crafts from OurGlass, Alison Woods and Ed Tailor

News from the team

Wow, we are really gathering a fast pace now – busy with Apple Day preparations. We are very excited as this year we have the amazing Simmertones and The Esplanades to dance along to. With many delicious hot foods, from Mexican to Italian, and great vintage crafts and food stalls, there is plenty to savour! Come along on the day and support this fantastic event.

We are happy to announce that we are working in partnership with Optimus Convention to add to our popular Halloween festival. Then we'll be planning our successful two day Christmas Fare on 5 and 6 December!

The Gallery will be open late until 6.30 pm from 7th December for visitors to enjoy some Christmas shopping after work. You'll be able to pick up that unique gift for sure.

Come and enjoy the fun!
