"Beautiful grounds and surrounding areas"

NEW

★★★★★ Reviewed 1 week ago

After visiting the glass blowers, metal and wood craft, chocolate and various other shops at Cockington. Take the walk up to the big house, the grounds are beautiful and great fun for children, they love rolling down the small grass hills. Perfect place for the family picnic.

"Must see"

★★★★★ Reviewed 2 weeks ago

This is situated in the middle of a lovely estate, ideal for walking and dog exercising. Courtyard with live crafts a good visit. The main house contains a pleasant snack restaurant and gift shop. Wedding venue and conference centre. Paid car parking.

"works team day at a lovely venue!"

★★★★★ Reviewed 3 weeks ago

We had a works team day in the Court, which was great, we ordered food in the cafe/restaurant which was served in good time with no problems, all in all a lovely setting, great service.

Home to the Ultra Unique

'Every day is play day' for Sarah, the inspiration behind the creative business Tulip Wood. In her studio in the Stable Yard you'll find imaginative handmade wooden toys, which are designed with education in mind so children can learn through play.

Driftmoods are finding that their Slate House Signs are very popular with Cockington Court visitors. Hand crafted in genuine slate, this all-natural product is printed to order. Find out their full range of products by visiting Craig in his studio in the Stable Yard.

Kitchen Gallery Exhibition

The Desire exhibition continues until the 5 Feb and then the Gallery transforms into ROC Creative's Rainforest Exhibition. The exhibition begins on the 11 February so do come along and admire their work.

Message from the team

Love certainly is in the air! With Valentine's Day fast approaching, we have been busy preparing plenty of new handcrafted gifts for sale in the gallery and studios. Since the last newsletter we have been inundated with wedding enquiries. Last year we had a wedding proposal on our heart trail, and the couple then went on to get married here!

We have flowers, carriage rides and rings at hand, and all at such a romantic setting. I do often wonder how many proposals we have had here at the Court.

We've had many weddings here already this year in our Cary Room. This could well be a site record by the end of March!

Our team are busy preparing the Valentines Heart Trail for half term and our annual Wedding Showcase to celebrate everything that is available here. Since last year, we now have the horse and carriages and our florist Vita, so every year our offer is more bespoke than ever!

The Court's huge plus point is the unique and handcrafted items available to buy and commission. Our staff and craft makers pride themselves on making every effort to make your day very special.

Our car park offer proved a real success in December, so we thought our loyal visitors deserved another thank you from us. We have another great promotion in February, which you can read about below.

We all very much hope to see you soon.
